

A map of the Indian subcontinent and Sri Lanka. The landmasses are colored green, while the surrounding Indian Ocean is light blue. A grid of latitude and longitude lines is visible. A yellow-shaded region is located in the southwestern part of the Indian peninsula. The word 'India' is written in bold black text in the center of the green landmass. 'Sri Lanka' is written in black text to the right of the island. 'Indian Ocean' is written in a black, italicized serif font in the bottom left corner.
